

Title: From space-time reflection symmetry to integrable nonlocal models
Ziad Musslimani

Abstract: In this talk, I will describe how wave propagation in properly engineered photonic metamaterials with imprinted space-time reflection symmetry can lead to new exciting physical effects that are absent otherwise. Relations between such non-Hermitian physical phenomena and the newly emerging field of space-time nonlocal integrable systems are discussed.